

UC San Diego
TRANSNATIONAL KOREAN STUDIES

Presents:

(SUB-)EMPIRES AND MIGRATION:
NORTH AND SOUTH KOREAS, JAPAN,
MEXICO AND THE UNITED STATES

Friday, May 12, 2017 10:00am- 5:00pm Dolores Huerta Vera Cruz Room
"Old" Student Center

10:00am-11:00am: Hyun Mee Kim, Yonsei University, South Korea
Legal Precarity and Precarious Belonging of Refugee Children and Adolescents in South Korea
Discussant: Jin-kyung Lee, Literature, UC San Diego

11:00am-12:00pm: Minjeong Kim, San Diego State University, USA
"Border Lives". The Emergence of Korean Immigrant Communities in the U.S.-Mexico Border Region
Discussant: Wendy Matsummura, History, UC San Diego

1:30pm-2:30pm: Kenichi Yasuoka, Osaka University, Japan
Ethnicity, Empire and Alien-landownership: Koreans in Japanese Rural Villages
Discussant: Todd A. Henry, History, UC San Diego

2:30pm-3:30pm: Cheehyung Harrison Kim, Univ. of Missouri, USA
War Orphans, Capitalist Family, and Postwar North Korea's State-Form
Discussant: Minhwa Ahn, Transnational Korean Studies, UC San Diego

3:45pm-5:00pm: Roundtable

Also Sponsored by:

The Academy of Korean Studies
Division of Arts and Humanities
Institute of Arts and Humanities