Remembering Queer Korea: An International Symposium, Film Festival, and Exhibition

November 13-15, 2014
University of California-San Diego

TODD A. HENRY
ASSISTANT PROFESSOR, UCSD DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY
ACTING DIRECTOR, PROGRAM IN TRANSNATIONAL KOREAN STUDIES

SYMPOSIUM
Structural and Materials Engineering Building 248 (Cymer Conference Room)

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 14
SESSION I: MODERN/colonial manifestations, 1900-1945
10 AM-12:30 PM
John T sweetheart
Professor Emeritus, East Asian Languages and Cultures, Yale University

“IY Sang’s Queer Career and the Odd Rhetoric of Empire”

Pei Jean (Eno) Chen
PhD Candidate, Asian Studies, Cornell University

“Problematizing Love: The Intimate Event and Same-Sex Love in Colonial Korea”

Merose Hwang
Assistant Professor, History, Hiram College

“Transgendering Shamans: A 1927 Historical Revisionist Project by Ch’oe Nam-sdn and Yi Nang-hwa”

Jin Kyung Lee Discussion
Associate Professor, Literature, UCSD

SESSION II: CONTEMPORARY FORMATIONS, 1945/95
2:15-4:45 PM
Chungkang Kim
Research Assistant Professor, Research Institute of Comparative History and Culture, Hanyang University

“Nation, Subculture, and Non-Normative Gender Representation: The Film Male Hostess and the Politics of Gender in the 1960′s South Korea”

Todd Henry
Assistant Professor, History, UCSD

“Queer Lives as Cautionary Tales: Female Same-Sex Marriage in the Hetero-Patriarchal Imagination of Postwar South Korea”

Dmitry Mironenko
Korea Foundation Post-Doctoral Fellow, Center for Korean Research, Columbia University

“The ‘Social Flesh’ of Ssik-seong: Affective Avarice and the Human Rights Discourse in South Korea”

San Kang Kim Discussion
AIS Post-Doctoral Fellow/Lecturer
Program in Transnational Korean Studies, UCSD

SESSION III: CURRENT CONFIGURATIONS, 1995-PRESENT
3-6:30 PM

John Cha
Professor, Korea Institute, Harvard University, and Visiting Lecturer, East Asian Studies, Brown University

“The ‘Social Flesh’ of Ssik-seong: Affective Avarice and the Human Rights Discourse in South Korea”

Layoung Shin
PhD Candidate, Anthropology, SUNY-Binghamton

“Avoiding ’King Butches’ (Tibu): Gender Conformity and Fear of ’Visibility’ among Young Queer Women (Iban) in South Korea”

Minnieong Kim Discussion
Assistant Professor, Sociology, San Diego State University

SESSION IV: CURRENT CONFIGURATIONS, 1995-PRESENT
6-9 PM

Pei Jean (Eno) Chen
PhD Candidate, Asian Studies, Cornell University

“Yi Sang’s Queer Career and the Odd Rhetoric of Empire”

John Treat
Professor Emeritus, East Asian Languages and Cultures, Yale University

“Nyma’s Queer Career and the Odd Rhetoric of Empire”

Jin Kyung Lee Discussion
Associate Professor, Literature, UCSD

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 15
SESSION V: CURRENT CONFIGURATIONS, 1995-PRESENT
10 AM-2:15 PM

Han Sang Kim
Assistant Professor, History, UCSD

“Juche and Sex: Redefining Bodies and Desires in Postwar North Korea”

Dmitry Mironenko
Korea Foundation Post-Doctoral Fellow, Center for Korean Research, Columbia University

“The ‘Social Flesh’ of Ssik-seong: Affective Avarice and the Human Rights Discourse in South Korea”

San Kang Kim Discussion
AIS Post-Doctoral Fellow/Lecturer
Program in Transnational Korean Studies, UCSD

SESSION VI: CURRENT CONFIGURATIONS, 1995-PRESENT
2:15-4:45 PM

Pei Jean (Eno) Chen
PhD Candidate, Asian Studies, Cornell University

“Yi Sang’s Queer Career and the Odd Rhetoric of Empire”

John Treat
Professor Emeritus, East Asian Languages and Cultures, Yale University

“Nyma’s Queer Career and the Odd Rhetoric of Empire”

Jin Kyung Lee Discussion
Associate Professor, Literature, UCSD

SESSION VII: CURRENT CONFIGURATIONS, 1995-PRESENT
4:45-7 PM

Han Sang Kim
Assistant Professor, History, UCSD

“The ‘Social Flesh’ of Ssik-seong: Affective Avarice and the Human Rights Discourse in South Korea”

Dmitry Mironenko
Korea Foundation Post-Doctoral Fellow, Center for Korean Research, Columbia University

“The ‘Social Flesh’ of Ssik-seong: Affective Avarice and the Human Rights Discourse in South Korea”

San Kang Kim Discussion
AIS Post-Doctoral Fellow/Lecturer
Program in Transnational Korean Studies, UCSD

SESSION VIII: CURRENT CONFIGURATIONS, 1995-PRESENT
7-9 PM

Pei Jean (Eno) Chen
PhD Candidate, Asian Studies, Cornell University

“Yi Sang’s Queer Career and the Odd Rhetoric of Empire”

John Treat
Professor Emeritus, East Asian Languages and Cultures, Yale University

“Nyma’s Queer Career and the Odd Rhetoric of Empire”

Jin Kyung Lee Discussion
Associate Professor, Literature, UCSD

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 15
SESSION III: CURRENT CONFIGURATIONS, 1995-PRESENT
3-6:30 PM

John Cha
Professor, Korea Institute, Harvard University, and Visiting Lecturer, East Asian Studies, Brown University

“The ‘Social Flesh’ of Ssik-seong: Affective Avarice and the Human Rights Discourse in South Korea”

Layoung Shin
PhD Candidate, Anthropology, SUNY-Binghamton

“Avoiding ’King Butches’ (Tibu): Gender Conformity and Fear of ’Visibility’ among Young Queer Women (Iban) in South Korea”

Minnieong Kim Discussion
Assistant Professor, Sociology, San Diego State University

SESSION IV: CURRENT CONFIGURATIONS, 1995-PRESENT
6-9 PM

Pei Jean (Eno) Chen
PhD Candidate, Asian Studies, Cornell University

“Yi Sang’s Queer Career and the Odd Rhetoric of Empire”

John Treat
Professor Emeritus, East Asian Languages and Cultures, Yale University

“Nyma’s Queer Career and the Odd Rhetoric of Empire”

Jin Kyung Lee Discussion
Associate Professor, Literature, UCSD

SESSION V: CURRENT CONFIGURATIONS, 1995-PRESENT
9-12 PM

Han Sang Kim
Assistant Professor, History, UCSD

“Juche and Sex: Redefining Bodies and Desires in Postwar North Korea”

Dmitry Mironenko
Korea Foundation Post-Doctoral Fellow, Center for Korean Research, Columbia University

“The ‘Social Flesh’ of Ssik-seong: Affective Avarice and the Human Rights Discourse in South Korea”

San Kang Kim Discussion
AIS Post-Doctoral Fellow/Lecturer
Program in Transnational Korean Studies, UCSD

SESSION VI: CURRENT CONFIGURATIONS, 1995-PRESENT
12-3 PM

Pei Jean (Eno) Chen
PhD Candidate, Asian Studies, Cornell University

“Yi Sang’s Queer Career and the Odd Rhetoric of Empire”

John Treat
Professor Emeritus, East Asian Languages and Cultures, Yale University

“Nyma’s Queer Career and the Odd Rhetoric of Empire”

Jin Kyung Lee Discussion
Associate Professor, Literature, UCSD

SESSION VII: CURRENT CONFIGURATIONS, 1995-PRESENT
3-6 PM

Han Sang Kim
Assistant Professor, History, UCSD

“The ‘Social Flesh’ of Ssik-seong: Affective Avarice and the Human Rights Discourse in South Korea”

Dmitry Mironenko
Korea Foundation Post-Doctoral Fellow, Center for Korean Research, Columbia University

“The ‘Social Flesh’ of Ssik-seong: Affective Avarice and the Human Rights Discourse in South Korea”

San Kang Kim Discussion
AIS Post-Doctoral Fellow/Lecturer
Program in Transnational Korean Studies, UCSD

SESSION VIII: CURRENT CONFIGURATIONS, 1995-PRESENT
6-9 PM

Pei Jean (Eno) Chen
PhD Candidate, Asian Studies, Cornell University

“Yi Sang’s Queer Career and the Odd Rhetoric of Empire”

John Treat
Professor Emeritus, East Asian Languages and Cultures, Yale University

“Nyma’s Queer Career and the Odd Rhetoric of Empire”

Jin Kyung Lee Discussion
Associate Professor, Literature, UCSD

SESSION IX: CURRENT CONFIGURATIONS, 1995-PRESENT
9-12 PM

Han Sang Kim
Assistant Professor, History, UCSD

“The ‘Social Flesh’ of Ssik-seong: Affective Avarice and the Human Rights Discourse in South Korea”

Dmitry Mironenko
Korea Foundation Post-Doctoral Fellow, Center for Korean Research, Columbia University

“The ‘Social Flesh’ of Ssik-seong: Affective Avarice and the Human Rights Discourse in South Korea”

San Kang Kim Discussion
AIS Post-Doctoral Fellow/Lecturer
Program in Transnational Korean Studies, UCSD