

The Japan-Korea Identity Clash

East Asian Security and the United States with Scott Snyder, Senior Fellow for Korea Studies and Director of the Program on U.S.-Korea Policy at the Council on Foreign Relations (CFR)

April 18, 2016 | 12–1:30 p.m.

Dean's Conference Room, Robinson Building Complex

Join us for lunch with Scott Snyder for a discussion of his new book with Brad Glosserman, "The Japan-Korea Identity Clash."

In the last five years, diplomatic relations between Japan and Korea have become increasingly strained. The central reasons have less to do with strategic or economic interests than with history issues. How do we understand the dynamics of history conflicts and what should U.S. policy do to mitigate them?
